

<https://www.thegazette.co.uk/London/issue/20833/page/895/data.pdf>

NOTICE is hereby given, that by deed of assignment, bearing, date "the 10th day of January 1848, and made between Edward Lloyd, of Salisbury-square, in the city of London, Printer and Publisher, of the first part; James Barry, of Queenhithe, in the said city of London, Wholesale Stationer, and Samuel Sharwood, of Aldersgate Street, in the said city of London, Type Founder, trustees for themselves and the rest of the creditors of the said Edward Lloyd, of the second part; and the several persons whose names and seals are thereunto subscribed and set, being respectively creditors of the said Edward Lloyd, of the third part; for the considerations therein mentioned, the said Edward Lloyd did assign unto the said James Barry and Samuel Sharwood, their executors, administrators, and assigns, all and every the stock. in trade, utensils, goods, wares, and merchandizes, and all other the personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, of the said Edward Lloyd, in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy (except leases for years, or from year to year, or at will, book debts, household furniture, plate, linen, and china), upon the several trusts therein mentioned, and amongst others, upon trust, for the equal benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Lloyd who should have, respectively, executed the same presents; which said deed was duly executed by each of them, the said Edward Lloyd, James Barry, and Samuel Sharwood, respectively, on the day of the date thereof, being the said 10th day of January 1848, in the presence of, and attested by, John Stephen Spindler Hopwood, of No. 47, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Solicitor, and now lies at the offices of Messrs. Hopwood and Son, No. 47, Chancery-lane aforesaid, for execution of such of the creditors of the said Edward Lloyd as have not already executed the same.—Dated this 28th day of February 1848.