Dear Mr Devereux

I am leaving town for my holiday on Saturday next and have invited friends to shock with me the first three days of the week but I could arrange to run up to town on Thursday, the 5th, if you could manage to meet me on that day.

Mr Bullen's death does not make any difference to the Trust as the income has to be paid to my sister for life and the capital divided as she may by her will direct between the children who may survive her

I have discussed with her the question of selling the ordinary shares and replacing them by gilt edged securities and she is willing to do this gradually.

Mrs Lloyd has been here three weeks further water & baths but we are leaving for town tomorrow, so that I may have a few hours tomorrow and the whole of Friday at the office.

With kind regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely

Frank Lloyd
